RE: MUR 6826

Dear Sir/ Madam,

Your letter dated 5/28/2014 addressed to me and mailed to Sri Lankan Consulate in Los Angeles was delivered to my residence on 6/6/2014. After reviewing the contents of the letter I wish to respectfully submit the following correct facts relating to your allegation:

- 1. I am not the Consul General for Sri Lanka and was not the Consul General at the time of the activity apparently reported by a newspaper.
- 2. I have been approached by the Ministry of External Affairs of Sri Lanka about the possibility of my becoming the next Consul General of The Sri Lankan Consulate in Los Angeles. I have not yet decided whether I would accept this position. I am still, to date, a law-abiding U.S. Citizen.
- 3. As such, at the time of this activity and even now, I am a United States Citizen who can participate in lawful activities and even fundraisers for persons who are contesting elections.
- 4. I will contact the Asian Tribune and notify them that I am not the Consul General of Sri Lanka, and request them to publish a correction in their next issue.

If you need further clarification, Please do not hesitate to contact me

Sincerely,
